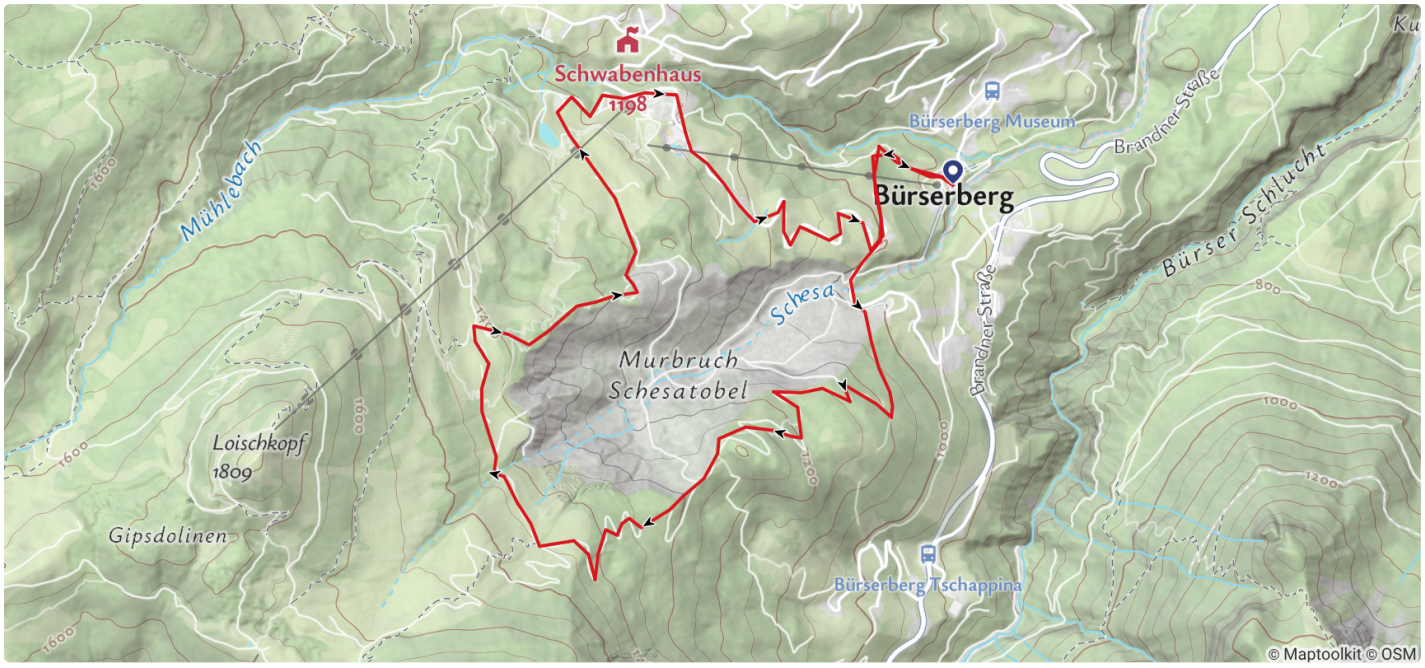
Schesamurbruch-Tschengla | Bürserberg

MODERATE | REFRESHMENTS | ROUND TRIP | GEOLOGICAL HIGHLIGHTS



Tour description

On this hike from Bürserberg to the high plateau Tschengla you have a fabulous view of the mighty Schesamurbruch.

From the car park at Einhornbahn I, take the meadow path into the forest and follow the toboggan run to the Zwischenbäch junction. Turn left there and walk through a forest path and continue across a meadow, past the Paterno sheep farm onto Tschenglastraße. From there, follow the road to the left until after the bridge over the Schesamurbruch. This mudflow is the largest in Europe. After the bridge, turn right up the signposted path along the Schesamurbruch towards the Burtscha Alpe. The first part leads along the Schesamurbruch through the forest and then ends in a forest road. Follow this forest road to the Burtscha Alpe and then turn right along the upper edge of the Schesamurbruch to the BERGRESTAURANT FUCHSBAU. At the BERGRESTAURANT FUCHSBAU, turn right to the SC Bürs house and descend via the lower part of the Schesatobel path to Rufana Alp. Past the Rufana Alp, continue downhill to the Landal holiday park or Schillerkopf Alpine Resort. From here, either take the Tschenglabus back to Bürserberg to the starting point or walk along the Tschenglastraße to the Zwischenbäch parcel and then take the ascent path back to the starting point.
